Amy Tuckett

Personal statement

Creative Graphic Designer with over two years' commercial experience across graphic design and artwork roles. I am an enthusiastic and hard working individual who puts effort into everything they do. I am skilled in the Adobe Creative Suite, producing high-quality print and digital marketing materials for social media and production. Experienced working with marketing and product teams to deliver creative projects to deadlines. I am reliable, organised and keen to continue developing with an in-house creative team and independently. My personal hobbies include going to the gym and I like travelling too.
